

How to Complete a Financial StatementInstructions

A Financial Statement (Form F10.02A) is a sworn document that informs the Court of your financial situation.

You only need to fill out a Financial Statement if at least one of these situations applies to you:

- Your matter involves a claim for spousal, partner, parental, or dependant support (made by either party)
- Your matter involves child support and the amount claimed is different from (or in addition to) the table amount in the Child Support Guidelines because of one or more of the following:
 - Your matter involves support for at least one child over the age of 19;
 - Your matter involves a claim for special and/or extraordinary expenses;
 - You have shared parenting time (where the child spends at least 40% of their time with each parent);
 - You have split decision-making (where each parent has sole decision-making of at least one of the children);
 - Your matter involves a child support claim involving a payor who is not the child's/children's biological or adoptive parent but has acted as a parent to the child/children;
 - Your matter involves support and one or more of the payors makes more than $150,000/year;
 - You are making an undue hardship claim.

Completing Your Financial Statement

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the other person). You must fill out Parts A, B, and C of the Financial Statement and attach any schedules and additional forms that apply to you. If you need more space to fill out any section of this Financial Statement, attach an extra page.

Filing and Serving Your Financial Statement

You may file and serve your Financial Statement together with your Application, Response, or Reply. You must make 3 extra copies of your completed and signed Financial Statement (including any additional documents). File your original Financial Statement with the Court. To file the Financial Statement, you must bring the Financial Statement to the Supreme Court location where your file is or you can mail it to that location.

You must give a copy of the Financial Statement to the other person. This is called service. You can serve the other person by: personal service (an adult, who is not you, can hand-deliver the document), leaving a copy with the other person's lawyer, leaving a copy at the other person's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You can also serve the other person using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the other person has provided that information.
